Changing lives through learning

Qualification Unit

This unit forms part of a regulated qualification.

Unit Title: Radicalisation Awareness

Unit Reference Number: T/615/6694

Level: Level One (1)

Credit Value: Two (2)

Minimum Guided Learning Hours: 18

Learning Outcome (The Learner will):	Assessment Criterion (The Learner can):
1. Understand what is meant by radicalisation	1.1 Define the term radicalisation
	1.2 Outline how individuals may become radicalised
	1.3 Describe three situations where radicalisation may be instigated and develop
2. Understand who is most vulnerable and at risk of radicalisation and manipulation	2.1 Identify six vulnerable characteristics or behaviours that may increase the risk of radicalisation
	2.2 Explain why individuals with these characteristics or behaviours could be more susceptible to manipulation
	2.3 Outline four methods of manipulation
	2.4 Outline how radicalisation can lead to increased criminal activity
3. Understand how to challenge those with alternate or extremist views	3.1 Outline how you would challenge those with alternative or extremist views
	3.2 Give examples of approaches that can be used to make an individual less vulnerable to extremist views
	3.3 Identify agencies able to give help and advice on issues related to radicalisation

The intellectual property rights remain with Open Awards.