Changing lives through learning

Qualification Unit

This unit forms part of a regulated qualification.

Unit Title: Approaches to Learning

Unit Reference Number: D/615/6978

Level: Entry Level Three (3)

Credit Value: Two (2)

Minimum Guided Learning Hours: 20

Learning Outcome (The Learner will):	Assessment Criterion (The Learner can):
1. Understand that there are different ways to learn	1.1 Give two examples of past learning experiences
	1.2 State in each case, how learning took place
	1.3 List the different ways in which people learn
2. Recognise and understand own learning preferences	2.1 List the things that make learning a good experience, including: a) The relevance of the learning; b) Where learning takes place; c) The type of learning activities used.
	2.2 Identify own learning preferences
3. Understand how learning styles affect approaches to learning and study	3.1 List learning methods that will be the most effective for individual learners
4. Reflect on own approaches to learning	4.1 List main points learned
	4.2 State how learning can be applied to own situation
	4.3 List future learning needs

The intellectual property rights remain with Open Awards.