Open Awards

Quality Endorsed Unit

1 Unit Details

Unit Title:	Node Link Mapping
Unit Reference Number:	GB7/4/WR/003
Level:	4
Credit Value:	3
GLH:	30

2 Learning Outcomes and Criteria

Learning Outcome (The Learner will):	Assessment Criterion (The Learner can):
1. Understand Node Link Mapping (NLM)	1.1 Compare and contrast NLM with other examples of person-centred approaches
	1.2 Summarise the evidence-base for the efficacy of NLM
2. Be able to use a range of node link maps within 1:1 and group settings	2.1 Demonstrate the use of: a) Knowledge (Information) Maps b) Guide Maps c) Free Mapping
	2.2 Demonstrate the implementation of NLM for 3 of the following: d) Exploring Self e) Social Interaction f) Decision making / Planning Maps g) Skills Development, e.g. assertiveness h) Health Awareness i) Recovery Planning Maps (Setting goals)
	2.3 Evaluate the effectiveness of maps

This unit does not form part of a regulated qualification. The intellectual property rights remain with Open Awards

3.	Know how to apply NLM in conjunction with other psychosocial interventions	3.1	Explain how NLM can be used within a tiered approach to delivering psychosocial interventions
4.	Understand the potential impact of NLM in the development of therapeutic relationships	4.1	Outline evidence based practitioner characteristics that have been identified for developing good quality therapeutic rapport
		4.2	Evaluate how Node Link Mapping may contribute to the development of practitioner characteristics

This unit does not form part of a regulated qualification. The intellectual property rights remain with Open Awards